

LETTER TO OUR SUPPLIERS

Dear Sirs and Madams

We are all experiencing first-hand the extraordinary challenges and immense impact that the corona crisis is having on the global aviation sector on airlines and airports.

After the three most successful years in our company's history, the Lufthansa Group has fallen through no fault of its own into this unique crisis, which is difficult to bear.

The Extraordinary General Meeting of Deutsche Lufthansa AG today approved the proposed and necessary capital measures and we can successfully continue the restart. We will continue to focus on what we love to do and what we do best: Flying aircraft and offering all our customers the best possible service.

We are aware that the events of the last few weeks and the current situation may give reasons for concern and thank you for your support in these challenging times.

As of next week, we will start again on the basis of our contractual arrangements in order to jointly overcome the extraordinary impact of the Covid-19 pandemic on the aviation industry.

Thank you very much for your support and stay healthy.

With kind regards
